about 1,800 persons lat night.

When the audience was about half out of the theater the smell of smoke had begun to be so strong that persons in the balcony surmised the trouble. The balcony entrance at the Herald Square leads from the lobby of the treat r, and there was no confusion in the orchestra account of crowding from above.

When the persons not yet out found a there was a fire they merely a-ked the persons aboud of t em to move as tast as they could. There was little complaint on account of the sections of any one in the audience, for every one in the ter sppear dt i be looking out for the ra'ety of every one else. STORM ON THE COAST.

A northeast gale accompanied by a continuous and heavy rainfall, blew on the Virginia coast all of yesterday, reaching a velocity of 58 miles an hour last night, or two miles below hurricane mark. The weather was thick, with drifts and snow flurries. It was impossible to discern lights more than a few hundred ginia in recent years awept over the ta'e yes orday. Because of the anapping of hundreds of electric wires, Mayor Richardson, of Richmond, issued an order yesterday afternoon to cut off all light service on the streets last night, in consequence of which the city was in darkness Fifteen inches of snow fell between 6 o'clock yesterday morning and 4 ye-terday afternoon, the average strest depth being 11 inches. Fredericksburg a d Front Royal re-port heavy drifts, while towns more in-land cil not suffer so much from wind as from a heavy snowfall, Etaunton report-ing 15 inches up to an early hour la t night; Lexington, 14 inches, Winchester, 10 inches; Warea *, 8 inches, and Lynchdurg, 8 inches. At Bristol and throughout eastern Tennessee it snowed steadily all day, and was still snowing late last night.

Open Evenings Until Christmas

King and Pitt Sts.,

Beg to announce their complete readiness for the Xmas holiday rusb. The stocks have been carefully gathered from the best markets and consist of the most practical gift things for Women, Men and Children at exceedingly moderate prices. We shall make a feature to box every present in a neat box. We have purchased thousands of neat fancy boxes at a considerable cost specially for this purpose. To avoid the usual afternoon rush we would suggest shopping early in the day.

Respectfully. SWAN BROS.
